Hiroshi Suzuki (Monex, Inc.) to Participate in the Vancouver Olympics Bobsleigh Competition

TOKYO, February 3, 2010 – Monex, Inc. (President and CEO: Oki Matsumoto, “Monex”), a 100% subsidiary of Monex Group, Inc., announces that Hiroshi Suzuki, an employee of Monex, has been chosen to participate in the Vancouver 2010 XXI Olympic Winter Games (“Vancouver Olympics”) as a member of the Japan National Team for the Bobsleigh men’s two-man and four-man competition.* He has had 8 straight victories in the Japan Championship, and this will be his fourth time participating in the Olympics after Lillehammer, Nagano and Salt Lake City.

Suzuki, who is a pilot for both the two-man and four-man competition, has continued training for the sport while working as an employee in the Web & Marketing Department of Monex. We are most honored for this event and wish him the best of luck.

Bobsleigh competition dates (JST):

-Two-man	Heat 1: February 21, 2010	Heat 2: February 22, 2010
-Four-man	Heat 1: February 27, 2010	Heat 2: February 28, 2010

From Hiroshi Suzuki:

“I am delighted to participate in the Vancouver Olympics. I am filled with gratitude, as this was made possible through the support of my family, company, and many other people. I will aim for the top by keeping up my condition, and giving my best performance in the best stage possible, the Olympics. I appreciate your encouraging and cheering.”

Hiroshi Suzuki:	Born 1973 (36 years old as of Feb., 2010) in Hokkaido Prefecture
-1994	Lillehammer Winter Olympics (two-man & four-man)
-1998	Nagano Winter Olympics (two-man)
-2002	Salt Lake City Winter Olympics (two-man & four-man)
-2008	America’s Cup 3 rd Place (2 nd Place two-man, 5 th Place four-man)
-Japan Championship two-man (total 10 victories, currently 8 consecutively) 2002-2009

(*): Bobsleigh is a competition in which teams make timed runs down 1,200m-1,700m narrow, twisted iced tracks in a gravity powered sled with handles, which can go as fast as 150km per hour. Bobsleigh competitions are either two-man or four-man, and the pilot is the crew member who sits in the front of the sled and controls the handles.
